ATLANTA – Bronner Brothers, one of the nation’s leading African American hair and skin care companies, will host its 65th Annual International Hair Show Aug. 4-7 at the Georgia World Congress Center, 285 Andrew Young International Blvd.

Considered to be the world’s largest beauty and trade show of its kind, the event will include a comedy show, church service and a legendary “Barber Battle.”

For more information, call 770-988-0015.

‘Back to School Jam’ slated for Greenbriar Mall

ATLANTA – Greenbriar Mall will donate 1,000 back-packs filled with school supplies at its “Back to School Jam” 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. July 28 at the mall, 2841 Greenbriar Pkwy.

Pre-registration for students in grades one through 12 begins at 8 a.m. in the south parking lot.

The event also will include a resource fair, live entertainment, arts and crafts and other giveaways.

For more information, call 404-344-6611 or visit www.shopgreenbriar.com.

‘University Women’ to convene at Hyatt

ATLANTA – More than 400 women educators from across the U.S. and parts of Africa will convene at the downtown Hyatt Regency on July 31 through Aug. 5 for the 68th annual convention of the National Association of University Women, Inc.

The group will hold forums designed to honor the group’s mission of serving women, youth and the disadvantaged in communities and developing countries by addressing educational issues, advancing the status of women’s issues and strategically partnering with allied organizations.

Atlanta-based women’s advocate Dr. Carla Stokes will receive the group’s 2012 Community Service Grant for her program, HOTGIRLS (Helping Our Teen Girls In Real Life Situations).

For more information, visit www.NAUW1910.org.

Atlanta Tech gets $104,000 grant

ATLANTA – The Hank Aaron Chasing the Dream Foundation donated $104,000 to Atlanta Technical College to establish the Hank Aaron Chasing the Dream Foundation 4 Endowed Scholarship.

The scholarship is in memory of Dr. Brenda Watts Jones, former president of Atlanta Technical College and the first female African American technical college president in Georgia.

Starting this fall, the money will be used to help at least two students each term.

Black ‘Sci Fi’ fest slated for Aug 4

ATLANTA – “The State of Black Science Fiction Film Festival” will be held at 2 p.m. August 4 at the Auburn Avenue Research Library, 101 Auburn Ave.

The film festival is in collaboration with The State of Black Science Fiction Author’s Collective.

Films include: Afro-Man & the Protectors of the Book of Knowledge, The Becoming Box, Rite of Passage: Initiation and A Single Link.

For more information, call 404-730-4001, ext. 303.

Oakhurst to host ‘Family Fun Day’

STONE MOUNTAIN – Oakhurst Medical Centers, Inc. will host its annual “Back to School Health & Wellness Family Fun Day” 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. August 4 at the Oakhurst Medical Center Decatur office, 770 Village Square Drive.

The event will include: free backpacks & school supplies, free immunizations and health screenings, healthy snacks, stress therapy, carnival games, pony rides and a young artist showcase.

For more information, call 404-730-4001, ext. 303.

Metro Digest

“Cheers!” is an Atlanta Voice feature highlighting the everyday accomplishments of everyday people—things like special honors, awards, job announcements, graduations, promotions and other achievements.

If you have a “Cheers!” item you would like to nominate, please send item and photo (if possible) to cheers@theatlantavoice.com.

Atlanta Allergy & Asthma Clinic, the largest allergy practice in Georgia, was named to the 2012 list of “Top Doctors in Atlanta.”

Guydon practices at the Northlake and Johns Creek offices of the clinic.

She received her bachelor’s degree from Mercer University in Macon and her medical degree from Harvard Medical School in Boston.

Compiled by Kalin Thomas